

An online talk show highlighting the experience of people living with HIV who work as researchers

EVALUATION SUMMARY

Session 2 — Working with PRAs: supervision, management, coordination or professional friendship
4 February, 2015

About the attendees

Number of attendees¹: 34 Number of attendees who completed an evaluation: 21 (or 62% of group)

- 43% from Ontario, 38% from British Columbia, 19% from Eastern Canada (includes Quebec)
- 52% were new to What's Hot with Peer Researchers
- 86% were involved in research as a peer, a researcher/study team member, or research coordinator

Feedback on the session

Overall satisfaction

- 100% of respondents were satisfied with the session
- 100% of respondents would participate in future sessions of "What's Hot?"

Top reasons for attending session

- Respondents wanted to learn from other peer researchers
- Respondents wanted to learn more about research studies that have peer researchers working with them
- Respondents wanted to learn about best practices for including peer researchers in research studies

Session content

- 100% agreed the questions asked by participants were answered during the session
- 90% agreed the online chat feature was an effective way to create dialogue among participants

Session content

- 67% agreed there was enough time for questions
- 58% agreed there was enough time for discussion among the participants

Comments about Edition 2

"Great idea to create PRAs network and share ideas, experience and issues"

"...It was good to hear other perspectives and have the chance to feel more informed/connected to what is happening with PRAs, research coordinators and HIV research in Canada. Thank you for inspiring thought and creating this opportunity"

"Great session! So impressed by the number of people who joined from across Canada! Clearly, there's an appetite for this! ...If you keep finding new diverse topics and presenters, I think the people will come! Field of dreams was on to something...and so are you! ;)"

"These sessions are great! Thank you"

¹ This number represents number of sites logged in, not number of people per site. The overall number of participants may be higher.